A-IV. CREDITS AND GRADING SCALE

Credits: Value of Credits – UNAM: Credit is the unit or grading for a course that is computed in the following way: a) In activities that require study or additional work from the student, such as theoretical classes or seminars, one hour of class week-semester corresponds to two (2) credits. b) In activities that don't require additional work or study from the student, such as practices, laboratories, workshops, etc., one hour of class week-semester corresponds to (1) credit. c) The value in credit of clinic activities and practice for the learning of music and visual arts, will be computed globally according to importance in the study plan and to the criteria from the corresponding Technical Board and from the University Board. School year will have the duration stated in the university's calendar. Credits for courses with duration less than a semester will be calculated proportionally to their duration. Credits will be expressed in whole numbers. 1 credit (Theory) is equivalent to 8 Hrs. 1 credit (Practical) is equivalent to 16 Hrs.	Grading Scale: Grading Scale at UNAM: 0-5.9= Not Approved/Fail; 6= Sufficient-Performance meets the minimum criteria; 7= Satisfactory-Fair work with significant shortcomings; 8= Good- Generally sound work with some notable errors; 9= Very good-Above average results with some errors; 10= Excellent-Outstanding results with only minor errors.
